

Name: Community Circles Mentor

Address

What people appreciate about you?

- Very approachable and willing to offer advice and support.
- Willing to make a positive contribution to someone else's life.
- A creative problem solver and great listener.
- Flexible, adaptable and have a can-do attitude.
- Willing to offer your time to support others.

What is important to you?

- People! Developing relationships with the person/people that you support and developing a positive, problem solving relationship.
- Supporting people to solve their own problems.
- Being able to problem-solve and generate creative solutions.
- A flexible role where you can offer support in a way that works for you and the person you are supporting.
- Knowing that offering your time is making a positive difference to lots of people.
- Using your skills and experience to support people in their role and offering advice and guidance
- Being able to tell great stories and share your experiences with peers and your professional connections.

How to support you in your role

- Mentors will be invited to join our Groupsite, like our Facebook page and follow us on Twitter in order to keep up to date with all of the work that Community Circles carry out and to share learning and experiences
- You will be supported in your role by the Community Circles Connector, who will provide you with a role description and with guidance on how much time and support you should offer to your mentee
- You will be introduced to the person that you are supporting via a one page profile matching tool